CRAIG WILL DISCUSS IN DETAIL EACH EVENING'S FINE WINES. NORTHCOTE'S SOMMELIER, NEIL ALEXANDER, WILL ADD TO THE OCCASION, AS WILL JULIAN WRIGHT OF THE WRIGHT WINE COMPANY AND MILES CORISH OF BOWLAND VINTNERS.

Some may say Craig's role in proceedings is a little less stressful than the chefs who are performing miracles in the kitchen. They would be wrong! From biting off a considerable share of the planning and organising, to being the 'front man' every night, Craig is the face of the Festival. The person who greets you, hosts the evening and maintains an entertaining level of banter and conversation. But none of these demonstrate the extraordinary skills he possesses in his real area of expertise...fine wine. It's Craig's task to match the perfect wine to every single dish...no mean feat when the chefs have a habit of changing their minds at the very last minute! But it's a talent that's already won him an enviable line-up of awards.
